

JONIDA BASHA

MSC.

BIO

Completed Bachelor Degree at the University of Tirana in 2010 in the field of Psychology. During this period, became part of the Network of Excellent Students due to high academic achievement.

In September 2011 was awarded a Swiss government scholarship from the Federal Commission for Scholarships for Foreign Students (FCS). This allowed to complete the Master of Science degree at the University of Geneva (Switzerland) focusing in the Cognitive and Applied Psychology orientation.

Worked in hospital setting, part of one of the biggest private networks in the United Arab Emirates focusing on medical claims, insurance policies and billing from 2017 to 2021.

In 2022, thanks to a grant from the United Arab Emirates University has worked as a research assistant for Prof. Milos Ljubisavljevic MD, head of Physiology department. In this position have had the opportunity to work with brain stimulation techniques like tDCS, TMS, EEG as well as with programs like TESA, EEGlab and to publish in international science papers.

Proficient in English, French and Italian language.

CAREER OVERVIEW

- Project Coordinator

FIELDS OF EXPERTISE

- Cognitive psychology
- Applied psychology
- Medical claims and billing

EMAIL

j.basha@umb.edu.al